

APPLICATION FOR A CRITICAL WORKER SPACE AT HURLEY PRIMARY SCHOOL

Parents are encouraged to PLEASE keep children safely at home wherever possible. We have an excellent, interactive Remote - learning experience planned using Google Classroom. However, for parents who qualify for critical worker status AND who cannot make alternative arrangements to keep their children at home the school will be open for these few pupils along with vulnerable pupils who we have already contacted and offered places. Click here for definition of a Critical/Key Worker When you return this form please highlight which area of the Critical Worker definition covers your job.

If you believe you qualify for CRITICAL/KEY WORKER status and require your children to attend school to enable you to carry out essential duties, please complete the following application form below.

Before we confirm a place we will require evidence to support your application such as a letter from your companies HR department or an ID badge for the NHS etc.

Please return this form a week before a place is required along with appropriate evidence

And send to tongue.m@welearn365.com

We have already offered places to critical workers when lockdown was announced on the 4th January 2021. Should a future place be required please complete this form at least one week in advance and provide relevant evidence such as a letter from your work- place to confirm your status. You will need to wait for us to check your validity as a key worker and we reserve the right to refuse a place if your job does not adequately fit the Government definition of a critical worker.
